MINERS FORCED TO LEAVE VICTOR

Seventy-six Are Deported Under Guard of Colorado Militiamen.

(By Associated Press.)
COLORADO SPRINGS, COL., June
10.—Acting under the orders of Adjutant-General Sherman Bell, of the State National Guard, a special train was made up shortly after noon to-day in the short line yards at Victor for the deportation of seventy-six union miners. The train was commosed of a combination baggage car and two day coaches.
Almost immediately the work of loading the men began. They were marched to the train between heavy lines of military and deputies. A crowd of fully 1,000 people had collected to see the men placed on board. Among the spectators were wives and sisters, fathers and mothers of the deported men, and the scenes were very affecting. Mothers, sisters and sweethearts oried good-bye and tried to push through the lines for a parling handshake.

Mayor Harris, of this city, had been informed of the decision to deport the men, and immediately took steps to see that none of them landed in Colorado Springs. The train stopped long enough at this place to give the soldlers time to eat. The deportated men had rations of beans and bread on board. Another party of exiled men will be sent out of the district to-morrow. Sixty men confined in the Cripple Creek bull pen wer taken to the county jail to-day and charges of murder were placed against them. The train was composed of a combina-

APPEAL TO ROOSEVELT. The Federation of Miners Ask the President's Aid.

DENVER COL., June 10.—The executive board of the Western Federation of Miners decided to day to appeal to President Roosevelt to investigate the condition in Colorado. Secretary W. D. Haywood was instructed to send the following telegram to the President: Haywood was instructed to send the following telegram to the President: "A duty devolves upon you as President of the United States, to investigate the terible crimes that are being perpetrated in Colorado in the name of law and order. We will render every possible assistance to the proper authorities in such investigation to the end that the people of the country may realize the outrages that are being inflicted on innocent persons by those in temporary official power."

AGAINST DIVORCE.

Divorce Convention and Mass-

Meeting of Ministers.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

Ital-BIGH. N. C., June 10.—The Convention of North Carolina Diocese to-day adopted resolutions in conformity with the recommendations of Bishop Cheshire, expressing its sense of the evils of the present divorce laws and providing for an address to the people of all denominations, urging co-operation for legislative reform.

nations, briging cooperation to regard the reform.

Provision was made for putting an agent in the field to raise funds to lift the debt on St. Mary's School. No ap-pointment has been made yet. The con-vention adjourned at 5:20 o'clock to-night.

night.

Two-night a mass-meeting was held, participated in by pastors of all denominations. Addresses were delivered against the present North Carolina divorce laws rand insistence made that there be a return to the Code provisions of 1883.

The Legislature is to be memoralized to this end.
